DR. V. K. GREER WILL DISCUSS SCHOOL AREAS

For some time the possibility of organizing township school areas in East Gwillimbury township has been discussed. The original proposal was an area comprising all the school sections, administered by one board of five members elected by a general vote.

However, it was pointed out that this plan might result in an unequal representation for the different parts of the township. Therefore, it has been suggested that the township be divided into two areas.

The western area would include school sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8 and 15, with a teaching staff of ten teachers. One board of five trustees would be elected from the eight sections to administer the schools. The assessment of this area would be approximately $1,065,440.

The eastern area would include sections 6, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and the union school at Brownhill, with a teaching staff of nine teachers. One board of five trustees would be elected from the eight sections at the same time and in the same manner as the township councillors. The assessment in this area would be $768,175. All the schools would remain open as at present.

Many advantages would accrue from such an arrangement, it is said. Some of the most apparent are:

1 A more equal school privilege for each pupil would be provided, and a more equitable distribution of school costs would be possible.

2 All schools could be brought to the same level in equipment and efficiency.

3 The cost would be lower for the same services.

4 A marked increase in grants would result. At least $800 would be paid to each area or $1,600 for the whole township, which is more than the cost of running the average township school for one year.

5 Better opportunities to co-operate in improving educational services for the whole township would result.

The present school buildings are quite adequate to serve the township for many years; consequently no expensive building program would be necessary.

There are now 165 township school areas, including 863 sections, in the province of Ontario. In every case the system has resulted in satisfaction and in an improvement of the schools.

In order to give the public of the township more information on the plan, Dr. V. K. Greer, chief inspector of public and separate schools, will speak in the township hall at Sharon on April 20, at 8 p.m.

ELECT DEPUTY-REEVE

William L. Clark was elected deputy-reeve of Markham township in a by-election last week by a majority of 192 over Harry H. Barber. Both men resigned as councillors to run for the deputy-reeveship.

Reuben L. Sliver, Unionville, and Dalton Runney, Gormley, were elected to fill the vacant seats on the council.

Charles H. Hooper, Gormley, is reeve by acclamation. The election was made necessary by the death of Reeve James Rennie.

Hit Horse And Cart, It's Last Rest He Expects

An interesting letter, dated March 18, has been received by Wm. White from his son, Tpr. David White, who is overseas. Excerpts from the letter follow:

"Just a line to say hello and give you the lowdown on the latest dope. We've just finished a big scheme. I hit a horse and cart while I was on my bike and I am in the hospital. I should be out next week. I bashed my knee and ripped a big piece out of my right leg. It's healing nicely now and I should be fit again soon.

"I've had a nice rest in the hospital, but I've a hunch we won't get much rest from now on. I guess you know what I mean."

How To Get Best Values From Foods, Is Subject

Mrs. C. Baker of the nutrition and visiting housekeepers service will lecture on Monday, April 19, at 8 p.m. on "Meat Extenders."

Moving pictures will be shown. On April 20 at 3 p.m. Mrs. Baker will speak on "Substituting Foods in Wartime." The lectures will be held in Trinity United church.

The lectures are free and are sponsored by the Red Cross for the betterment of health.

Mrs. Baker has already given two lectures in the series.

"Nutrition has become a very important problem," said Mrs. Baker in the first lecture. "Physical deficiency has been traced back to the diet. Nutrition is the science of eating. We are what we eat. Lack of physical well-being colors your mental outlook."

"Vitamin B1 is the morale builder. B1 is necessary for the health of the nervous system. If you have not sufficient B1, you are fatigued, mentally depressed, lack interest and enthusiasm and have a poor appetite. B1 is very important and is found in whole grain cereals, whole wheat bread and rolled oats. B1 is soluble in water."

"Don't over-cook vegetables and don't throw the water down the sink but use for soups and gravies. In cooking, avoid the use of soda, as it destroys the vitamins. Getting vitamins from food is cheaper than buying vitamin pills. If you do not get enough vitamins, you become ill. Every vitamin has a function. Vitamins act as a worker and build up. Cook cereals just before serving. In reheating cereals you lose vitamins."

"Avoid having left-over meats, so you don't have to re-heat. In cooking pork and liver, don't have too high a heat. You retain more B1 in meats if you roast uncovered. Cook legumes gently and don't use soda. Cook vegetables in a small amount of water. Bake potatoes with skins. Split peas and carrots lengthwise instead of crosswise and you retain more B1 vitamin. Don't prepare vegetables a long time before cooking, as you lose B1."

"A test was made, buying three pounds of rolled oats and whole wheat bread at a cost of 23 cents and corn flakes at a cost of 23c. The whole lot was put in a bag and rolled oats gave 3,000 times as much vitamins as the corn flakes and also gave more iron. In adding wheat germ to your breakfast cereal, add towards the end of cooking and do not use high heat."

"B2 vitamin is always found in milk. Sixty percent of the people are not getting sufficient B2 in their diet. B2 is a tooth and bone builder. A growing child should have one quart of milk per day but it is not necessary to take it all as beverage."

Some combinations for using milk as a beverage were given such as ginger ale and milk, spiced milk, grapefruit and milk with a touch of lemon, peaches or pear juice and milk, tomato juice and milk, prune juice and milk, two tablespoonsful of maple syrup and milk.

"Vitamin D is the sunshine vitamin," she said. "Sunshine rays give vitamin D. Eskimos have perfect structure. They eat halibut, which lives deep in the ocean but comes to the surface to feed. Vitamin D is the bricklayer. In summer milk has some vitamin D but not in winter. Radiated yeast and radiated milk have vitamin D."

"Vitamin B2 helps to retain characteristics of youth. Wheat and cottage cheese is a rich source of vitamin B2."

"Use one serving of citrus fruits or tomato juice daily, cereal and bread daily, one serving of liver, kidney or heart weekly, three or four eggs weekly, meat or fish daily, milk and cheese daily, two vegetables cooked with a minimum amount of water in addition to potatoes daily, some raw vegetables such as celery, lettuce and cabbage daily, some raw fruit daily."

PRIZE IS GIVEN BY BOARD FOR BEST STUDENT

Plans for public and separate school children's Victory gardens and for beautification of the public school grounds were outlined by President Norman Williams of the Newmarket Horticultural Society to the Newmarket public school board at a meeting on Friday evening. The chairman, Rev. J. A. Koffend, presided. Mr. Williams stated that Rev. Henry Cotton was chairman of the juvenile committee and would submit plans for beautification of the school grounds to a board committee before proceeding with the work.

Representatives of the schools and a member of the public school board, L. H. Bovair, were serving on the juvenile committee, Mr. Williams said. "Three hundred shrubs and trees are on order for the schools," he stated.

A juvenile spring show in conjunction with the annual peony show about the last Saturday in June, bird house competitions for grades five and six, and seven and eight, and a juvenile fall show displaying vegetables from the Victory gardens, were among tentative plans outlined by Mr. Williams.

"There will be no cost to the school board," he stated. Mr. Williams asked if a low, muddy spot at the King George school could be raised, so that planting might be done.

"I have always felt that our school grounds could be improved," stated Secretary R. L. Pritchard.

"I think that the Horticultural Society has started something on which we have been a little lax," said Mr. Bovair. "In towns like Orillia the schools are a centre of beauty. Alexander Muir school is the best off, but much could be done at the King George school."

Dr. G. E. Case expressed himself in favor of beautification "without interfering with them as playgrounds, which is their fundamental purpose."

"I would very much like to see our school grounds, particularly the King George school, in the centre of the town, beautified," said Frank Bothwell. "The grounds could be improved with shrubs that would not interfere with play."

Principal H. A. Jackson reported a percentage attendance of 92.75 and an average attendance of 495.6 in March. Average attendance for the two previous months was: February, 450.3; January, 477.4.

"The highest percentage attendance in this inspectorate in any month last year was 94," stated Mr. Jackson. He said that over 90 could be considered good.

Grades one and two children will be dismissed at 2.30 p.m., beginning at a date to be decided by Mr. Jackson, probably after the Easter holidays, the board decided. Grade one children already get out earlier than children of other grades.

Mr. Jackson said that the plan would enable the teachers to give special attention to any children who needed it, and that some parents were anxious to have their children outdoors more, particularly during the fine spring days.

"Psychologists say that by 2.30 a child of that age has reached the saturation point, so far as learning is concerned," said Mr. Jackson.

Mr. Koffend asked if the shorter hours would affect provincial grants. "No," replied Mr. Jackson.

Dr. Case and Mr. Pritchard carried the motion, which was carried unanimously.

Mr. Jackson expressed thanks to the board for the books which he had been permitted to purchase for classroom work. "Those affected are joyful, and want to thank the board," he said. "They are helping the children with their work. The books are an excellent addition."

He stated that he had so far spent $238 of the authorized $250. On the suggestion of Mr. Koffend, the board decided to give a $10 prize for the highest ranking pupil in grade eight. "So much is done for high school pupils, and so little for public school pupils," Mr. Koffend commented, suggesting that the money might be used to buy high school books.

The resolution stated that it would be "a proficiency award for the highest academic standing, the year's work and final examinations to be considered."

The board appointed Rev. J. A. Koffend and Mrs. J. C. Edwards delegates to the Ontario Educational Association convention in Toronto during the Easter school holidays.

Mr. Bovair asked when the (Page 8, Col. 7)

PRESIDES TONIGHT

Aubrey Davis, Newmarket, Victory loan chairman for North York, will preside at a salesmen's and workers' dinner at Pickering College this evening. Frank Laskier, veteran merchant seaman, and Rev. Henry Cotton, Newmarket, will speak.

THERE'S FIRE TO PUT OUT, WHO WILL HELP?

To the residents of East Gwillimbury:

I have been requested by Mr. Gary Thompson, organizer for the fourth Victory Loan in the township of East Gwillimbury, to write an open letter to you in support of the fourth Victory Loan. I hope the few words I am about to offer in this column may be of assistance in this noble effort.

East Gwillimbury is largely rural and for that reason our big task is to provide food for the armed forces. Canadian farms have done an excellent job of increasing food production, but that food has to be transported to the battle zones to feed our fighting forces and those of our allies. Freight ships and their escorts have to be provided to carry food, plants and other machines of war to the allies. All this has to be paid for, just as the food bought from us.

If fire, beyond our efforts to control, should threaten our homes how much would we be prepared to donate—not loan—to have that fire out?

If a gang of robbers threatened to seize our possessions and force our families and ourselves into slave labor or into concentration camps, what would we do to have them conquered? Yet such is the actual condition of millions of people in occupied Europe today.

We have not been forced to undergo this, because the armed forces of the allies, equipped to meet this threat, have been armed to offset this danger by using money raised by taxes and Victory Loans.

Let us then, when the Victory Loan canvasser calls, sit down and calculate what it is worth to us to continue at our work without having to undergo the terrible tragedies of war, except for those whose sons and daughters are in some active war zone.

We are asked to give the fruit of our toil and our savings while they are giving their most precious possession, their lives.

Are we going to fail them? Are we going to dig deeper and do our very best to put the loan over the top?

You will note that I have made no comment on the worth of Victory bonds. We can only countenance one result for this war—victory. Anything else would be too horrible to contemplate.

Our bonds are as safe as Canada. We can insure the safety of Canada by putting this loan over the top.

I for one, have every confidence that we, the residents of East Gwillimbury will do our best to go over the top in our quota for the Victory Loan. Now, if you have read this far, sit tight, and absorb this bit of advice. Money, or the canvaser in your district with a smile and be ready to buy to your limit. You, alone, know what that is.

I will be writing to you again next week.

Yours for Victory,
H. G. Barnes.
Mount Albert, April 12.

SOLOIST HELPS BRITAIN

Mrs. R. E. K. Rourke took part in Handel's "Judas Macabeus," which was presented in Deer Park United church, Toronto, last evening. The proceeds were in aid of British Bomb Victims.

Gave Time Generously, Reeve Says Of Auditor

The occasion of the passing of a formal by-law appointing a Toronto firm of chartered accountants as town auditors at a town council meeting last week was taken by Reeve F. A. Lundy, chairman of the finance committee, to pay tribute to the retiring auditor, George Vale.

"Here is passing out of the municipal service a man who has given 24 years of service to the town, and we should pay tribute to him," said Mr. Lundy.

"George Vale is retiring as one of the town's officials," said Mr. Lundy. "He has been a very faithful employee and has given his time generously. He was of special value to the town at the time of the two tax sales, and gave us a great deal of help."

Buy Victory Bonds Now, Plan Work For All, Is Plea Made

No Need For Heart Breaks Of Depression Time, Says Speaker, World Revolution Now Taking Place

"This organization was created for one purpose, to spread the gospel of fellowship, the gospel of service, which was first taught 2,000 years ago by the first great Lion, the Lion of Judah," Emmerson W. Crawford, Bowmanville, district Lions governor, told Newmarket Lions club on Monday evening. President Frank Bowser was in the chair.

Mr. Crawford said that the Newmarket club was strong and active, and had been "fortunate in having good presidents and good secretaries." International Counsellor H. E. Lambert had set a record, "not equalled before or since" for the number of visits he made when district governor.

"Canada will be different after this war," said Mr. Crawford. "Changes are taking place even now."

People should study and then inform their governments what they were prepared to support, he said. "We must remember that governments never lead. They only follow."

"Our federal government did not start this war," he said. "It is doing its best to carry on. We must help our government."

He condemned the "post office senate" to be found along every town's main street, made up of "those who are continually finding fault and don't know what they are talking about."

"We used to fear communism," he said. "The spirit of the Russian people is entirely different from what it was 15 years ago. Today they are turning the tide of battle. There is a basis for a new fellowship."

"We have had the selfishness of individual freedom, in this country, whereby each climbed on the other's back," said Mr. Crawford, pleading that out of "this world revolution" might come "a group of united nations living together as the good Master intended."

"Our part is to help win this war, and to prepare ourselves for a new fellowship. The winning of the war is well under way. Our part is to buy Victory bonds and more Victory bonds."

"Are we going to let our boys come back to unemployment as after the last war? Will they be willing to do so? There must be a job for every man and we must see that every man works at his job."

"Russia has taken steps to provide employment for her people after the war. Russia is planning a highway from Moscow to meet the Alaskan highway."

"If we can pay heavy taxes now, we could have paid much heavier taxes from 1930 to 1934. Then there would have been no depression, no unemployment, no broken hearts. There can be jobs for all if our government will use that money to carry out those enterprises that are too big for private enterprise."

"The common man is asking why there is unemployment in time of peace if not in time of war? That question will lead us to the new world."

Mr. Crawford suggested construction of the St. Lawrence waterway, an oil line from the Atlantic Valley to Toronto and Montreal, extension of the Trans-Canada highway system, national air transportation, reforestation, as post-war employment makers.

"The road ahead may be hard but it is of our own choosing," he said.

Declares Mitchell Has Courage And Fine Record

AFTER CANDIDATE CHOSEN ALL MUST SUPPORT, SAYS NORTH YORKER

Editor, The Era and Express: As possibly one of the oldest members of the C.C.F. in the riding of North York, and a great believer in the democratic principles of the party, I feel that I cannot let go unchallenged some of the statements made by another member in your last issue.

Whilst it is true that because of organization work quite a number of the delegates were, comparatively speaking, new members, it is also true that there were others, like myself, old members, who were prepared, if necessary, to support our candidate, Mr. Geo. Mitchell, and the reason is not hard to find. Mr. Mitchell has, as reeve of a municipality with a population of approximately 24,000, shown in a practical manner that he has fine administrative ability, the courage of his convictions, and is not afraid to stand up and fight when the going is heavy. He is also practising in his own municipality what other people are preaching—looking after those who are unable to look after themselves. I am, and so are many others, convinced that if Mr. Mitchell is elected to represent the people of North York riding, they can rest assured that their best interests will be well served.

In conclusion, may I say that while I recognize the fact that we cannot always agree in matters of this kind, it is universally recognized that when a convention has been called for the purpose of nominating a candidate, and such candidate has been duly elected either by vote or acclamation, such decision is accepted as final and morally obligates all members to support the candidate.

Yours truly,
Arthur Sharp

HISTORY TO ORDER

If you have a sense of humor, keep it. It is all you may have left some day, with all these radical new political parties, including the Progressive Conservative party, which Stephen Leacock, a Conservative himself, apparently points at when he writes of the "Backwards and Forwards party" in Toronto Saturday Night.

Mr. Leacock recently wrote a history of Canada for a mail-order house—or else he wrote a history of Canada to order for a whisky house—that's it. How Stephen must have chuckled as he wrote about the white man's settlement of America and his trade with the Indians without mentioning, so far as we noted, the use of John Barleycorn. He did break faith at page 100 when he mentioned that Pontiac was "stabbed to death by one of his own race, bribed by an English liquor trader."

When this book reached the desks of practically all editors in Canada a couple of months ago, there were innumerable reviews of it. We thought we should wait until we had had time to read it, and now that we have skimmed off the foam—perhaps we should remember that this is a distiller's, not a brewer's book—we would like to say that it is a breezy account of how Europe discovered America and made it what it is or isn't.

We are amused and amazed to learn that when Hon. J. H. Thomas called Prime Minister Bennett's empire tariff proposals "humbug" he was merely saying what everybody had thought about "British preference" since 1898.

And then for the future, "Canada must be reorganized as the central buttress of imperial power." "There can be no question again of self-determined nations, all free, joining in a free League of Nations to rule the world. It is well to be done once and for all in time with the form of propaganda which still infests the British press and which pours over in leaflets to Canada. Here for instance is such a typical leaflet of the immediate moment, which urges a vigorous prosecution of the war to the complete destruction of German power, to be followed by setting up a new League of Nations, including Germans and such, but truly international in having its own armed forces, superior to those of any one nation in the League. This, of course, means winning the war and then handing over our lives and fortunes to a round-table vote, with a bunch of crooks among the voters. If idiocy can go as far as this, it is well to part company with it at the outset."

Fellow Conservative and fellow Orillian, the editor of the Orillia Packet and Times doesn't agree, we note, that British preference was always "humbug," but we have no doubt that many people will agree with Mr. Leacock's simple solution of the post-war world order problem.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

CONSERVATIVE TRADITION

(Orillia Packet and Times)

Fundamentally, then, we believe Conservative tradition to be based on one outstanding characteristic. That is the conviction that the dominion should develop its political and economic systems on the principle that this country occupies, and desires to continue to occupy, an important place in the British empire, and the belief that it is the party's duty to resist the recurrent idea that the laws of gravity have cast Canada's "manifest destiny" as a satellite of our big neighbor to the south.

This pro-British sentiment has by no means been confined to the Conservatives of the country. In fact, there have been instances when the Liberals have outbid their rivals in this direction, as in the introduction of the British preference and imperial penny postage under the Laurier government, and at a later stage with the Dunning budget. But at every great crisis in Canada's external relations—commercial union, unrestricted reciprocity, reciprocity treaty of 1911, the naval debates, and the conscription issue in the last war—it has been the Conservative party that has stood out against the trend towards continentalism and has advocated full recognition of Canada's obligations as a member of the empire.

And, it may be noted in passing, on every occasion the Conservatives have in taking this line won the sympathy and support of a considerable number of Liberals, including in some instances some of the party's leaders, and in one case the former leader himself, Mr. Edward Blake. This, to some extent at least, justified the name Liberal-Conservative, which has now been abandoned in favor of Progressive-Conservative. And be it added further, in every case where the appeal was on this basis, the Conservatives were successful at the polls.

This, of course, is all history, much of it so long ago as not to be within the ken of the present generation. Yet it has very important bearings on the present political situation. For it is becoming increasingly clear that the old issue of the direction of Canada's external political and commercial relations and developments—which had fallen into the background after the rebuffs sustained by the Liberals in 1887, 1892 and 1911—is again coming into the foreground.

Of People And Things

PATIENCE

By Isabel Inglis Colville

Patience is usually considered a virtue, but, in this case, she is a milkmaid, and, as Mr. Churchill might say, "WHAT a milkmaid!"

To some people, like ourselves, Gilbert and Sullivan is a sort of obsession, for the more we hear the more we want.

Perhaps having taken part in a good many of them in our younger days has made us more susceptible to their never-failing charm, but true wit and humor is bound to make itself felt, even to those who listen for the first time.

Perhaps I shouldn't imply that it does to everyone, for it seems to be my evil fortune to sit beside or behind someone who looks disgusted with the whole thing, or else absolutely blank.

I'm not, as a rule, vindictive, but it would have given me great pleasure to have slammed this man's hat over his eyes, and tell him to get out or smile.

However, this just isn't done, so I tried to shut out his melancholy countenance, but all the same he was too near for perfect enjoyment.

There are some people who seem absolutely steeped in the magic of Gilbert and Sullivan. They ARE the party they play. Of such are Mr. and Mrs. Rourke.

Mrs. Rourke's voice and personality won her recognition as the artist she is, anywhere, but one has to have a special flair for Gilbert and Sullivan and after you have seen a part played by one who HASN'T got it, you glory in it when played by one who HAS. It needs no words of mine to convince his audience that the stage lost a great artist when Mr. Rourke decided on another career. However, he hasn't allowed his talent to rust and we, who enjoy it, can only say "Thank you."

I have always had a great admiration for those who play the part of Lady Jane in Patience and Kathleen in the Mikado. They are ungrateful parts and yet, I think, demand as great artistry as any in the whole cast, more, in fact, than most. Mrs. Jackson gave a superb rendering in her conception of Lady Jane.

Ward Cornell as Grosvener, the officers of the Dragoon Guards, the ladies Angela, Saphir and Ella gave an excellent account of themselves, while the chorus of rapturous maidens and that of the officers of the guard were fine in their precision, enunciation and expression.

So much in Gilbert and Sullivan operas depends on the chorus that it has to be good to live up to the reputation of its thousands of predecessors.

And last of all, I want to say a word, or a good many words, about the accompanist. Perhaps I should have mentioned him first, for he is the cornerstone—the whole foundation of the structure, and we all know that if a foundation is unsafe the whole structure is liable to collapse.

John Newmark's background and foundation of music was as solid as rock, and as flexible as silk, elastic. Where solidity of tone was called for he was there, a sure and splendid foundation. Where the singer needed latitude in time for effect he was there too, never a minute before or behind—just right there. It was pure joy to watch and listen to.

And, as always, the whole affair was a delight and the town of Newmarket and surrounding district owe many thanks to those who make that enjoyment possible.

THE CHARTERED BANKS OF CANADA

WE CAN'T FIGHT IF WE DON'T EAT!!

.. We won't Eat if YOU don't help Ontario Farmers THIS SUMMER!

No longer can anyone sit back calmly with the knowledge that Canada is a great storehouse of food—that our fighting forces and we at home are sure of ample food supplies. The beef shortage and the rationing of foods are evidence that supplies are growing scarce.

There are two reasons for present and threatened food shortages. First, our nation is exporting more food than ever before in her history. Second, our farmers are short-handed. They need help because agricultural workers have left them to join the armed forces and to work in munitions plants at wages higher than the farmer can pay.

Because of the nature of his work, the farmer's greatest need for help comes with seedling in the spring and ends with late harvesting in September. There are two very difficult peaks to get over with haying and harvesting in the Summer when the demand for manpower on the farm is tremendous.

Experience or no experience, YOU CAN HELP. There's an Ontario Farm Service Force Brigade in which you can serve regardless of age, sex or occupation. Five of the Brigades are outlined here. Study them now and fill in the coupon below for further information today!

Farm Commandos Brigade

Members of the Farm Commandos Brigade are men (or women) who are regularly engaged in urban occupations, but who will give evening time, a half day or a day a week to help local farmers with seedling, haying, harvesting, threshing, silage filling and other types of farm operation which require substantial but brief increases in manpower. Over 12,000 people in Ontario actually work on the farm as spare-time farm hands last summer—merchants, clerks, professional men, mechanics, electricians and others from all walks of life and of all ages. More will be needed this year. Minimum pay is twenty-five cents an hour and those who feel charitably inclined turn their earnings over to their favorite charities. Write for information.

Holiday Service Brigade

Here's a brigade for selected persons who have a week or a week end of holiday when they are not needed in their own homes. Most members of this brigade will arrange work relative to their own interests or hobbies. The Ontario Farm Service Force will make take to assign you to a seasonal farm. Thousands of Ontario citizens need their holidays working on farms this summer, but more than ever will be needed this year. Why not join them? Write for full information today.

Farm Cadet Brigade

Young men from 15 years of age upward are needed on Ontario farms to help with sowing, planting and harvesting of farm crops, feeding and care of livestock including the care and handling of horses' feeding and care of poultry, hatching of eggs, corn, vegetable crops, etc. Farm Cadets commence working as early as April 23rd and are required by individual farmers as late as October 1st. The Farm Service Force places them on selected farms with every regard for their welfare. Wages for inexperienced help are $25 for the first month plus board, room and laundry with higher wages arranged by mutual agreement. Experienced Farm Cadets commence at $30 per month. Transportation to the place of employment is paid by the force. Write for descriptive Farm Cadet folder.

Women's Land Brigade

These are the women who work from six months to the year "round on poultry, dairy or mixed farms. From 20 years of age upward, they undertake milking, feeding and care of stock, field work, haying, stacking grain, threshing, working with horses and tractors. Girls or women who are willing to engage in this type of work should write for full information to the Director of the Farm Service Force. Extreme care is taken to see that members of the Women's Land Brigade are placed in congenial situations with maximum opportunity to learn the job and where due consideration will be given for health and physical limitations.

ONTARIO FARM SERVICE FORCE, Parliament Buildings, Toronto. If you are interested in doing what I can to help Ontario farmers this summer, please send me information on the Brigades outlined below.

MOVIES PARADE
A vivid love story, told against the sensational background of the fall and occupation of Paris, and romance, danger and suspicion keyed to wartime tempo, prove an excellent frame for Joan Crawford's superb performance in her latest offering, M-G-M's "Reunion in France," in which she is starred with John Wayne and Philip Dorn, which will be shown Monday and Tuesday at the Strand theatre.
Produced by Joe Mankiewicz and directed by the surprising Jules Dassin, "Reunion in France" proves to be one of the greater of the wartime pictures to date.

It departs materially from the familiar war-picture formula without losing a whit of drama and suspense. Miss Crawford has the role of a rich, socially prominent Parisienne, in love with a well-to-do Frenchman. She discovers him to be working hand in glove with the Nazi invaders and is torn between her love for him and her hatred of the conquerors and their collaborators. And she risks life and liberty in her efforts to aid a young American, John Wayne, who has escaped from a Nazi prison camp and is fighting his way to the safety of England.
Philip Dorn, as the Frenchman, is a romantic leading man and second to none with whom Miss Crawford has ever appeared. His portrayal of the seeming collaborator is polished and convincing.

Wayne's American boy dispenses with the slang and smart-cracking so often, unfortunately, an aggravating item in these characterizations.
In the large supporting cast are Albert Bassermann, Ann Ayars, John Carradine, J. Edward Bromberg and Reginald Owen.

WHITCHURCH

Says Relief Officer Quit and Stays Out

"You quit the job and you're through as far as I am concerned," declared Reeve George Leary before Whitchurch council on Saturday, addressing Relief Officer Robt. Windsor.

"You quit your job," charged the relief officer, "and you're through as far as I am concerned."

"I don't recall you asking for more money, although you did say you would starve on the price," admitted the relief officer.

Constable Windsor administers relief and checks indigent hospitalization cases, for which the pay is $200 per annum. Mr. Windsor said he wanted the same pay as he got last year, plus mileage, at seven cents per mile.

"I think $200 a year is plenty and I'm not in favor of any increase," declared Councillor Eugene Baker. He said he might travel $700 in a year on the duties, and again it might not run to that mileage.

"Too much," said Councillor Ed. Logan.

Reeve Leary said that the officer took the job at $200 and didn't do the work, "and you are through as far as I am concerned."

The question was laid over for a special meeting.

The question of the salary of the clerk and treasurer, John Crawford, R. W. Andrew presented the auditor's report and was complimented on the painstaking manner in which it was issued. He was paid $125 for his services and re-appointed for another year.

The council was advised that the one mill subsidy paid by the Ontario government in reduction of municipal taxes would be forthcoming again this year, and that the road subsidy of 50 percent would be paid on an expenditure of $18,000, a substantial increase over last year.

J. E. Bosworth, 6th concession farmer, asked the council to repair his mail-box, which he alleged was damaged by the township snow-plow. Many boxes were down in this and other townships, it was said, and if the council started paying one there might be an avalanche of claims. It is a knotty problem and the council would have to be forthcoming that the plow did the damage, the councillors said.

Application was made for a deputy game warden badge for Constable George Dewberry, and the question of to buy or not to buy calcium for the roads was left over. There will be no road oil this year.

Deputy-Reeve Lorne Evans introduced a motion to relieve the roll of taxes for 1942 against 50 acres bought by the county of York for reforestation at lot 3, con. 7. This was carried.

Councillor Leslie Harper moved a resolution for the payment of road accounts totalling several hundred dollars and a number of other accounts.

GLYCERINE FOR ADOLPH BENITO & SONS

Canada needs and must have every spoonful of fat drippings, every piece of scrap fat and every bone from every kitchen in Canada. Fat makes glycerine and glycerine makes high explosives. Bones produce fat. Also glue for war industry.

Don't throw away a single drop of used fat—bacon grease, meat drippings, frying fat—every kind you use. They are urgently needed to win this war.

Strain all drippings through an ordinary strainer into a clean wide-mouthed can. Save your scrap fat (cooked or uncooked) and all types of bones—cooked, uncooked or dry.

When you have collected a pound or more of fat dripping, take it to your meat dealer who will pay you the established price for the dripping and the scrap fat. Or you can dispose of them through any Municipal or Salvage Committee collection system.

It is a munition maker right in your own kitchen. For instance, there is enough explosive power hidden in ten pounds of fat to fire 49 anti-aircraft shells. So—every day, this easy way, keep working for Victory for the duration of the war.

At eight o'clock the Queen's York Rangers "C" Coy. are staging a full dress parade through Aurora (and later Newmarket) accompanied by their complete regimental brass band and their "ugle band." The regimental sound truck will accompany the detachment.

The parade will be to support the dominion-wide drive for recruits for the reserve army.

If you can't go active go reserve.

Capt. Earl Bales informs your reporter that he needs 50 recruits. 50 good reliable citizens to give up one night a week (Thursday) for two hours, to learn musketry and the manual of arms for the protection of their own homes if the need arises.

"A" is for Army, the finest and best.

"U" is for United to stand the test.

"R" is for Right, that we'll always be.

"O" is for Ours, the land of the free.

"R" is for Rangers, the Queen's York we mean.

"A" is for Aurora who will back them, we deem.

A Hectic Moment for Goalkeeper Lynn of Aurora

Aurora Wins First Game, Intermediate Finals, At Windsor

This Owen Sound Sun-Times picture shows 'the Orphans' line of Dolson, White and Shears keeping Lynn of Aurora busy on Saturday night. White is in front of Lynn waiting to back-hand a shot through the corner. Dolson is in the centre of action. The Orphan coming in from the background is Shears. Culverwell of Aurora is at the extreme right of the picture. DeLaat and Glover try to intercept the action in the centre.

Word comes from Windsor that Aurora Ordnance Depot, intermediate finalists by virtue of their win over Owen Sound, won the first game against Windsor Colonials last night 6-2.

The next game will be played in Toronto Friday night, goals to count on the round.

After two hectic games before capacity crowds in Owen Sound arena, Saturday and Monday nights, Aurora Ordnance Depot hockeyists surprised hockey fans and the vaunted Owen Sound Orphans by winning the right to enter the O.H.A. intermediate finals against Windsor Colonials.

It was the first occasion on which an Aurora team has advanced this far in intermediate competition.

The teams divided the two-game series, Aurora taking the opener on Saturday 8-5, and losing out on Monday night 3-2, but taking the total goal series 10-8.

The Owen Sound team, who last year won intermediate honors in the B series and had the advantage of playing on their own ice, were strong favorites. Over the season they have lost only two games, and in the opinion of some who saw the games they were among the greatest ever played in Ontario intermediate hockey.

Heading the Aurora win were two players. An old Aurora player, Eugene "Joint" McComb, undoubtedly was the best man on either team and his stick-handling was one of the reasons the Aurora soldiers were able to weather the storm in the second game. He was a regular "Scarlet Pimpernel" of the ice-lanes and despite some heavy attention by the irate Sound players drew only two penalties in the series.

Next to McComb, round Bobby Lynn merits a special orchid. Lynn was not over-worked in the first contest but in the final battle was called on time after time to make marvelous saves. These two boys are mentioned particularly but the other lads were only a shade behind them in effectiveness.

Aurora 8 Owen Sound 5

Aurora scored the first goal Saturday night from the stick of Gordy Shill and thereafter were never headed, although Owen Sound tied the score once, and again were within one goal of the military men in the last period.

McComb had two goals and an assist, while Bobby Lynn netted two. Other goals went to Gordy DeLaat, Bert Turney and Jack Stafford. The latter, a strapping young giant, bounced the Sound forwards around with abandon and did much to weaken their attack. Heading the Sounders' play was the work of 17-year-old Don Sutherland in the Owen Sound nets.

The kid custodian is a regular wizard and with his defence a bit off color did well to hold the score at 8-5. Jack Dobson of Barrie handled the game while a second official from Walkerton acted as linesman.

Both teams were satisfied with the officials and the penalties, all minors, were five to two against Aurora, but, with the exception of Cy. Proctor and Smith, while short-handed, Stafford and Jack Culverwell were able to handle the traffic with ease.

The gate was over $800 and the huge crowd was stunned at the loss sustained. The Orphans were 8 to 5 favorites in the bull-ring. McComb drew rounds of applause from the crowd for his stickhandling.

Owen Sound 3 Aurora 2

It was a desperate Sound team which, down three goals, came out and went to work at a hopeless task Monday night. The first period was drab, with Aurora soldiers holding their fire and Lynn smothering some close ones. Stafford drew two penalties and Smith of the Sound one. There was no score.

Penalties in the second period just about spelled fins to the Aurora cause, as the stout defenders tried to hold their lead. Culverwell, Turney, McComb (a major) were the sinners and during the flurry Small and Smith reduced the lead to a measly one goal.

McComb made a million dollar effort at 15:35 as he combined with Gordy Shill to squelch the roars of the cheering crowd. It was a beauty high to the left corner, leaving the score 2-1.

Andy Blair, who played a whale of a game all night, going 58 minutes for the Sound, cruised down the ice from the defence early in the last period again to threaten, Jack Culverwell, just to show two could play the same game, three minutes later scored for Aurora. It was now apparent that the Sounders were tiring and tempers became a bit frayed, three penalties cooling off the homesters' attack.

"Bun" White, injured in the second period, was unable to play the final period, while Shears, who had been dumped by Stafford, was also a casualty. The soldiers were content to hold their lead and take no chances, although they did test Sutherland hard when in the mood. Proctor and Smith were tops for Owen Sound.

Aurora: goal, Bobby Lynn; defence, Jack Culverwell, "Al. Shill; centre, "Joint" McComb; wings, Gordy Shill and Gordy DeLaat; subs, Jack Stafford, "Bunny" Glover, Bert Turney and "Hal" Mooney.

Owen Sound: goal, Sutherland; defence, Blair and Hayward; centre, Proctor; wings, Smith and White; subs, Dolson, Shears, Small and Buchanan.

WATER TURNED OFF WHEN GRASS CATCHES

The Aurora fire department and citizens from nearby houses turned off Saturday at 1 p.m. to fight a grass fire behind the Aurora Flour and Feed Mills.

Prompt action averted a serious blaze, as the houses in this section are mostly frame and the wind was blowing strongly from the north.

The town water supply was turned off at the same time, but citizens had the fire fairly well under control when the brigade arrived.

The fire was apparently caused by sparks from an engine shunting at the Aurora Flour and Feed Mills.

Cigarettes sure are appreciated over here, and it makes you feel better to know there are people back home who still remember you."

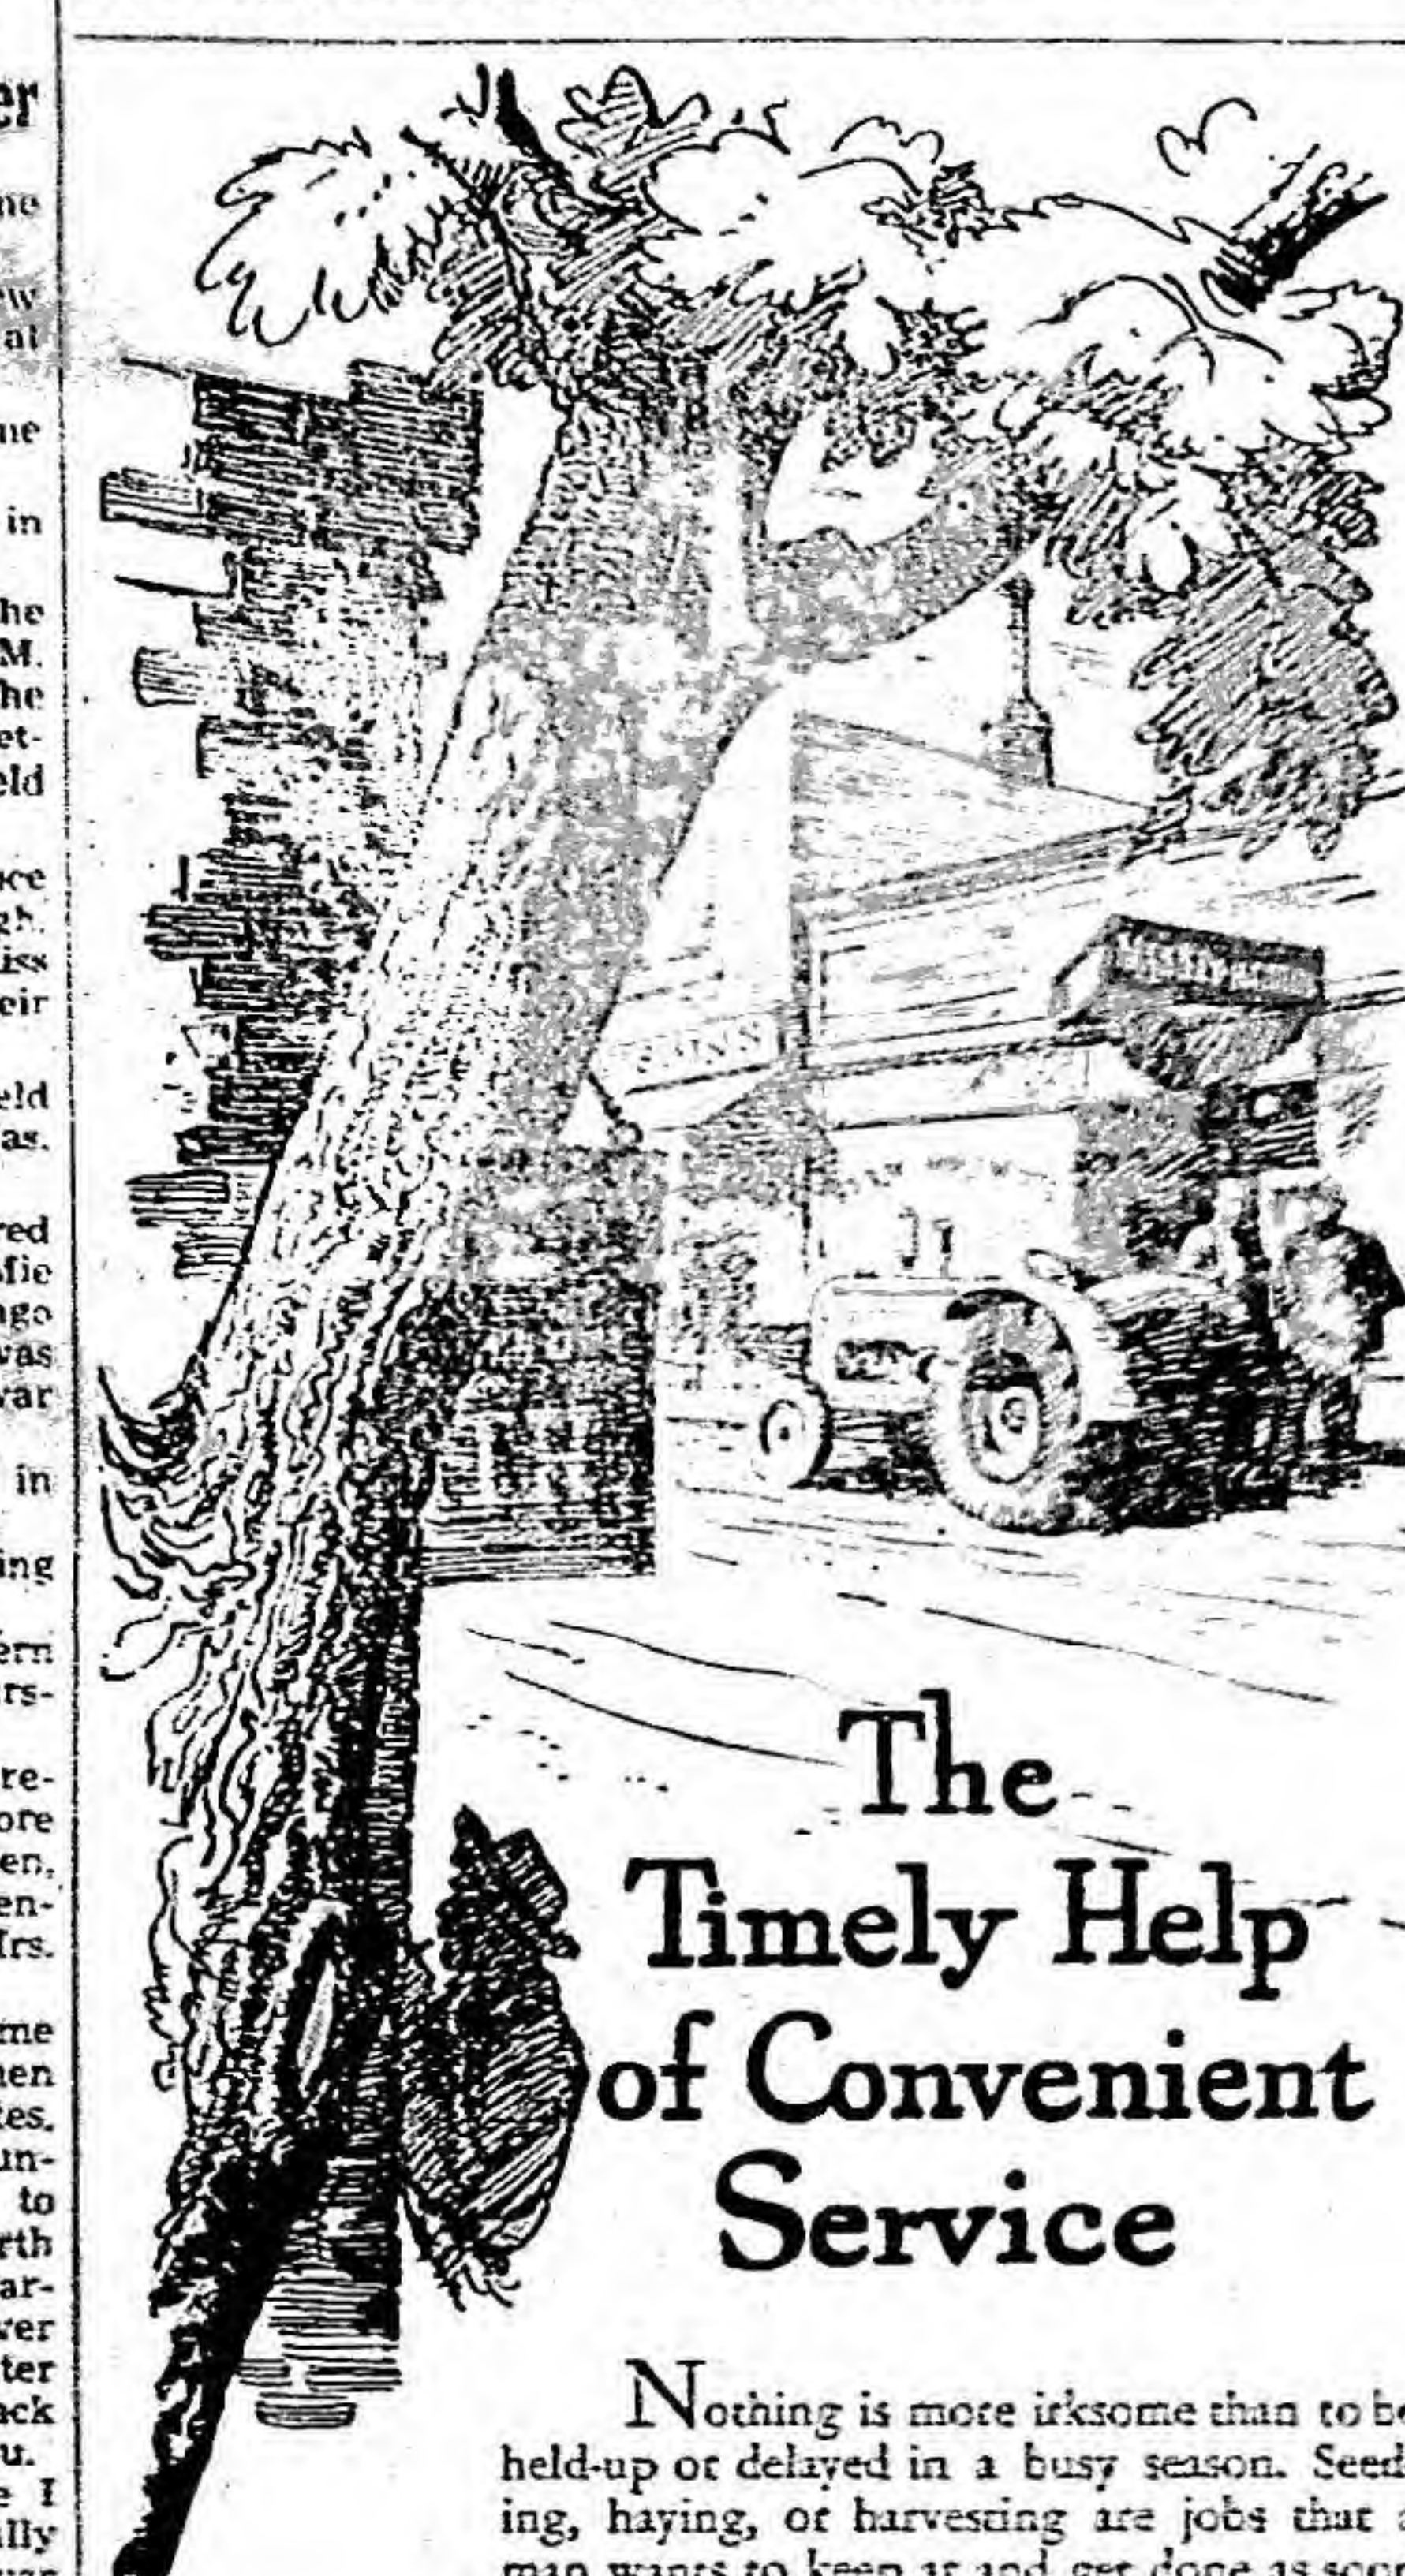

"It is two years now since I was home, but I would not really want to be back unless this war was over. I do get lonesome once in a while and I would like to see everyone back there again, but not to stay until this is finished. I like it over here pretty well, but you do miss some of the things you could get back home, especially cigarettes."

The Timely Help of Convenient Service

Nothing is more irksome than to be held-up or delayed in a busy season. Seeding, haying, or harvesting are jobs that a man wants to keep at and get done as soon as possible.

The timely help of convenient service is a mighty important factor in cutting down lost time when spare parts or machine service is required. In these days when farmers are being called upon to do more with less help it means a great deal to be able to telephone or call upon a local dealer and get what is wanted quickly and surely.

Established and organized to meet this ever-present need of agriculture for quick service contact, the Massey-Harris organization of branches, distributing centres, and local dealers has been geared to wartime needs. For complete machine overhauls and for prompt parts service, get in touch with your local Massey-Harris dealer.

Every war-worker's TWO-FOLD JOB!

- 1—Maintaining and increasing production
- 2—Helping finance the war

WHEN the Allied forces went on the attack, your two-fold war responsibility became greater than at any time during the war.

For on the attack, war materials just seem to melt away. The consumption of the supplies you are making is going on at an unbelievable rate—hastening the day of Victory and Peace.

This means that the production of war supplies must go on; ever faster. It also means that the cost of the war is becoming greater.

A great deal of these two responsibilities must be carried by war workers like yourself. Only you can maintain and increase the flow of essential war materials. And you, in common with every loyal citizen of Canada, can help finance the increasing cost of the attack.

Your purchase of Victory Bonds is an essential part of the Allied war strategy. Bonds are intended to be purchased by anyone. They are not reserved for financiers, merchants, bankers or people of wealth only. You and I, and all of us can and should own Victory Bonds.

The fourth Victory Loan will open soon. The millions of workers employed in industry—war and otherwise—are counted upon to loan a definite part of the amount required in the biggest loan yet asked of the Canadian people. To reach it, more men and women and children must become bond purchasers, and it will be necessary for those who have purchased bonds in previous loans to buy more bonds.

When your fellow worker calls on you to buy Victory Bonds BE READY. Give him two orders. One for cash, and the other for the very limit that you can buy out of earnings, on the Payroll Savings Plan. Plan now to do your part to sustain the attack!
